50X1-HUM

1. [redacted] knew of no brutalities which had been committed by the authorities in the Kukes area during late spring and summer of 1951.
2. According to rumors, persons sentenced to death were no longer being shot, but were gassed; the explanation given was that the population was thereby less aroused than if aware of the actual shooting.
3. The only Party purges [redacted] since early 1951 was in connection with the expelling of members following the Party's Second Congress held in early April 1952. 50X1-HUM
4. Only trusted Party members are allowed to carry arms, and in this connection perform "a variety of duties." The arms are usually of German, [redacted] or Czechoslovakian manufacture. Each individual thus armed is kept supplied with 60 to 100 rounds of ammunition. 50X1-HUM
5. There are active Party members against whom the people hold no enmity because they know that these Communists are nationalists at heart who are maintaining their good name in the Party for the purpose of aiding anti-regime friends. 50X1-HUM
6. Some civilians have hidden arms in their homes despite the threat of drastic penalty. [redacted] civilians also have cached arms and supplies in mountain areas, as civilians are often known to go into the mountains at night.
